

Finnish Lapphund

Breed Test

1. The ideal height for a Finnish Lapphund:
A. male 22", female 20 inches B. male 19.5" female 17.5" C. 14-18" for both sexes D. 17-21" for males, 15-19" females

2. The length of the body is slightly greater than the height at the withers, in a ratio of approximately:
A. 1 to 1 B. 12:11 C. 11:10 D. 10:9

3. The general appearance of the head:
A. Is a rectangle B. conveys strength C. harsh in expression D. all of the above

4. In relation to the head:
A. Stop is well defined B. stop is moderate C. stop is slight D. stop is non-existent

5. Which is correct regarding the ears of the Finnish Lapphund:
A. Dropped B. small to medium In size, triangular in Shape C. erect or semi-erect (tipped) D. B and C

6. The eyes are:
A. Almond in shape B. oval in shape C. triangular in shape D. preferably yellow or Blue

7. The skull is:
A. Slightly domed On the top B. frontal furrow easily distinguishable C. Equal in depth to breadth D. all of the above

8. The pigmentation of the nose leather, eye rims and lips are:
A. Self colored B. Preferably black C. Pink D. None of the above

9. Brown dogs will have:
A. Pink pigmentation B. Black pigmentation C. Dark Brown Pigmentation D. all of the above

10. The muzzle:
A. Is strong, broad And straight B. in length is slightly less than the length Of skull C. tapers slightly but evenly D. all of the above

11. The tail is:

- A. Set on rather high
And covered with
- B. carried over back
or side when moving
- C. may have a "J
hook" but should
Not be kinked
- D. all of the above

12. The feet are:

- A. Covered with a Thick coat of hair
- B. hairless between
toes
- C. pads thick and elastic
with toes slightly spread
- D. A & C

13. Which is correct regarding the coat of the Finnish Lapphund:

- A. Very harsh and Water repellent
- B. males should carry
a profuse mane
- C. undercoat soft. Very
dense and plentiful
- D. all of the above

14. In regards to the color of the coat:

- A. Bands of different
Color on single hair
Shaft is considered
Multi colored
- B. secondary color
may cover bpdy
- C. all colors permitted
- D. only the primary
color is permitted
on the head, neck,
chest, underside of
Body, legs and tail

15. The depth of chest:

- A. Reached below
The elbows
- B. reaches almost to
the elbows
- C. greater than half
the height of the dog
- D. is exactly half the height of the dog
-